Pralines

- 1 pkg. vanilla pudding powder (not instant)
- 1 1/2 c. brown sugar
- 1/2 c. cream
- 1 tbsp. butter
- 2 c. pecan halves

Combine pudding powder, brown sugar, cream, and butter in a medium size saucepan. Heat slowly, stirring constantly, until sugar dissolves, then cook without stirring until a teaspoon of syrup will form a soft ball when dropped into cold water. Remove from heat. Stir in pecans. Stir until mixture starts to thicken.

Drop by spoonfuls onto waxed paper.

The doctor answered the phone and heard the familiar voice of a colleague on the other end of the line.

"We need a fourth for poker," said the friend.

"I'll be right over," whispered the doctor.

As he was putting on his coat, his wife asked, "Is it serious?"

"Oh yes, quite serious," said the doctor gravely, "in fact, there are three doctors there already."

A hack golfer spends a day at a plush country club, playing golf & enjoying the luxury of a complimentary caddy. As usual, he plays poorly all day.

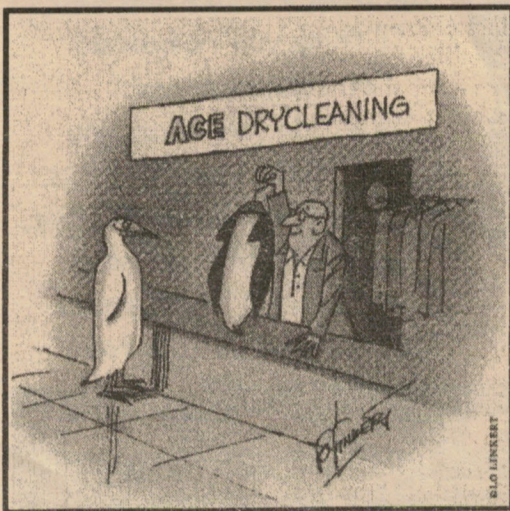

Round about the 18th hole, he spots a lake off to the left of the fairway. He looks at the caddy and says,

"I've played so poorly all day, I think I'm going to go drown myself in the lake."

The caddy looks back at him and says,

"I don't think you could keep your head down that long."

A man is struck by a bus on a busy street in New York City. He is lying near death on the sidewalk as a crowd gathers around.

"A priest. Somebody get me a priest!" the man gasps.

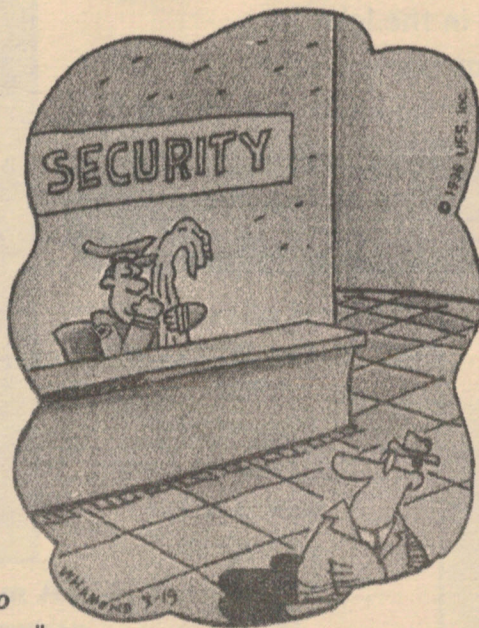

A little old man comes forward. "Excuse me," he says, "I am not a priest, but for forty years, I have lived across the back alley from a church and, almost nightly I hear the church service. I think I may be of some comfort to you."

He leans over the injured man, and says in a solemn voice, "B-4, I-19, N-38, G54, O-72."

Of course I can keep secrets- it's the people I tell them to who can't.

"What do you mean I should get into shape? I am in shape. Round is a shape."

If you can stay calm, while all around you is chaos, then you probably don't completely understand the seriousness of the situation.

The shopkeeper was dismayed when a brand new business, much like his own, opened up next door and put up a huge sign which read...BEST DEALS. He was horrified when another competitor opened up on the other side of him and put up an even bigger sign which read...LOWEST PRICES. The shopkeeper was panicked until he got an idea. He put up the biggest sign of all over his own shop. It read...MAIN ENTRANCE.

The new office boy went into the boss's office and said, "I think you're wanted on the phone, sir."

"What do you mean, you think?" demanded the boss. "Well, sir," explained the boy, "The phone rang and when I answered it, a voice said, 'Is that you, you old fool?'"

*In a psychology class, the instructor was about to introduce the subject of manic depression.
She posed this question
to her students:*

"How would you diagnose a patient who walks back and forth screaming at the top of their lungs one minute, then sits in a chair weeping uncontrollably the next?"

*A young man in the back raised his hand and suggested earnestly,
"Uh, he's a basketball coach?"*

"I've had bad luck with both my wives.
The first one left me.
The second one

Reaching the end of a job interview, the human resources worker asked a young engineer fresh out of MIT what kind of salary he was looking for.

"In the neighbourhood of $140,000 a year, depending on the benefits package."

"Well, what would you say to a package of 5-weeks vacation, 14 paid holidays, full medical and dental, company matching retirement fund to 50% of salary, and a company car, say a red Corvette, leased every two years?"

"Wow! Are you kidding?"

"Yeah, but you started it!"

A woman on her deathbed called her husband and instructed him to look under their bed and open the wooden box he found.
He was puzzled by the three eggs and $7,000 in cash he found in the box, so he asked his wife what the eggs were for.

"Oh, those," she replied, "Every time we had bad sex, I put an egg in the box."

Not bad after 35 years of marriage the husband thought to himself, then he asked,

"What about the $7,000?"

"Oh, that," she replied, "every time I got a dozen, I sold them."

A police officer stopped a motorist and asked if he knew the speed limit.

"Well, yes, officer, it's 100 km/hr."

The police officer said, "I've got you clocked at 132 km/hr., well over the limit."

"But that's impossible!" the motorist exclaimed,
"I've got my cruise control set at 115."

I met a man who had been married for 66 years.

"Amazing," I said, "66 years! What's the secret to such a long, happy marriage?"

"Well," he replied, "it's like this. The man makes all the big decisions, and the woman just makes the little decisions."

"Does that really work?" I asked.

"Oh, yes," he answered proudly, "66 years, and so far, not one big decision!"

According to the Knight-Ridder News Service, the inscription on the metal bands used by the U.S. Department of the Interior to tag migratory birds has been changed. The bands used to bear the address of the Washington Biological Survey, abbreviated, "Wash. Biol. Surv." until the agency received the following letter form an Arkansas camper:

"Dear Sirs: While camping last week I shot one of your birds. I think it was a crow. I followed the cooking instructions on the leg tag and I want to tell you it was horrible."

Sarah was reading a newspaper while her husband was engrossed in the ball game. Suddenly, she burst out laughing. "Listen to this," she said, "there's a classified ad here where a guy is offering to trade his wife for season tickets."

"Hmmm," her husband says, not looking up from the TV.

Sarah asked, "Would you trade me for season tickets?"

"Absolutely not," he said.

"How sweet," Sarah said.

Then he added, "Season's more than half over."

Taxiing down the tarmac, a jetliner abruptly stopped, turned around, and returned to the gate. After an hour long wait, it finally took off. A concerned passenger asked the flight attendant, "What was the problem?"

"The pilot was bothered by a noise he'd heard in the engine," she explained.

"So it took an hour to fix the problem?" she asked.

"No," the attendant said, "It took an hour to find another pilot."

Woman's Prayer:

"Dear Lord,

So far today, I am doing alright.

I have not gossiped, lost my temper, been greedy, grumpy, nasty, or selfish.

I have not whined, complained, or cursed. However, I am going to get out of bed in a few minutes and I will need a lot more help after that."

A student taking a philosophy class had a single question on his final:

"What is courage?"

The student wrote: "This", signed it, and turned it in.

Over coffee one day, two women were discussing their home lives. One said, "Seems like all Alfred and I do anymore is fight. I've been so upset, I've lost 15 pounds."

"Why don't you just leave him then?"

"Oh, not yet," the first replied, "I'd like to lose another 10 pounds."

Kitchen Hints

To eliminate smoke and odor when frying fish, add some lemon juice to the shortening.

Add a pinch of baking soda to the water when boiling cabbage.

This not only eliminates odor, but also helps to keep the cabbage green.

Alarmed, the manager rushed over to the customer who was walking out the door, and said, "That is not true, ma'am. Of course we'll have some soon. In fact we placed an order for it a couple of weeks ago."

Then the manager drew the clerk aside, and growled, "Never, ever, say we don't have something. If we don't have it, say it's on order and on the way. Now, what was it she wanted?"

"Rain."

"That's great," his mom said,

"but what made you decide that?"

"Well," the little boy said, "I have to go to church on Sunday anyway, and I figure it will be more fun to stand up and yell than to sit down and listen."

restaurant two times a week.

A little candlelight, dinner, soft music,
and dancing.

She goes Tuesdays,
I go Fridays."

It isn't pollution

that's harming our environment, it's the impurities in our air and water.

If you find yourself standing in front of the refrigerator asking whether you're hungry, you're not.

Definition

of a true music lover:

"A man who,
if he hears a woman
singing in the shower, puts his ear
to the keyhole."
